
ANJALEE KUMARI (Curriculum Vitae)

New Delhi | Contact -7827691528

anjaleekumari98@gmail.com

I am a student of Political Science dedicated towards building a career in academia, policy making and public administration. My areas of interest are public policy, international relations, regional cooperation and diplomacy. I aim to work on issues and narratives related to gender and sexuality, climate change and equity based sustainable development.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Junior Associate, Policy Communications (March 10, 2021 to June 1, 2021)

Organization- Moolya Foundation

This was an internship opportunity where I curated, created and published content for social media marketing. My work involved working with Word, Powerpoint, Hootsuite and Canva. I created and published contents in a time bound manner.

Secretary, Gandhi Study Circle (2018-2019)

IP College For Women

Gandhi Study Circle organized events around Gandhi, Gandhian principle and critical study of its relevance. During my tenure I got the opportunity to work with activists, journalists, academicians and students.

EDUCATION

UGC NET- JRF (June 2023)

Qualified for Junior Research Fellowship and Assistant Professor

MA POLITICAL SCIENCE (2021-present)

Kamala Nehru College, University of Delhi

BA (HONORS) POLITICAL SCIENCE (2016-2019)

IP College For Women, University of Delhi

First Division (65.5%)

SKILL

Skills	Level	Experience
Languages	Proficient in spoken and written Hindi and English
Canva, Hootsuite	Proficient	Created and curated social media content for Moolya Foundation for around four months
Editing and Writing	Highly Proficient	Academic research papers for extracurricular department seminar, stories, Social media campaign
Organizing and Leadership	Proficient	Held position of General Secretary(2017-18) in Gandhi Study Circle of IP College, DU

ACADEMIC PAPERS

1) 'How Gandhi's thoughts on rural local governance matters for the Contemporary India?'

This paper was presented at the Fifth Round Table Conference on Gandhi organized by IP College For Women in 2018

2) 'Bolshevik Revolution Through the Lens of Cinema'

This paper was presented at a student seminar (100 years of Bolshevik Revolution: An Alternative to Existing Paradigm) organized by the Department of Political Science, IP College For Women.(session 2017-2018)

3) Voices of Non-Congressism: Understanding Ambedkar, Jinnah, Golwalkar and Periyar In 1942

This paper was presented at a student seminar (Revisiting Quit India Movement) organized by the Department of Political Science, IP College For Women.(session 2017-2018)
