CURRICULUM VITAE

CAREER OBJECTIVES:

The best things I have discovered in my life have always been commitment, honesty, stability and assistance to my country and countrymen for a better future. As a well-committed, energetic and supportive part of my community, I have tried my best to give others what I gained through my academic and professional experiences. My core objectives are to support, inspire and appreciate everyone in the community. Therefore, based on my professional knowledge and experiences, particularly, as a language educator and society activist, I am eager to work and contribute to educating others, bringing peace, women's empowerment, developing mutual respect among people, conflict resolution and cross cultural understanding in the society and make the world a prosperous, peaceful and sustainable place for living.
