TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

Ms. Kiran Kumari, Bachelor of Arts in Social Sciences from Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Guwahati registered for the post graduate degree programme of two years in June 2017. On successful completion of the studies, she was awarded the degree of M.A. in Social Work (Livelihoods and Social Entrepreneurship) on May 27, 2019.

In partial fulfilment of the requirement for the degree, Ms. Kumari undertook a research project and submitted a report titled, 'A Study on Contributions of Manual Scavenger (Study in Patna District of Bihar).' Through this study, she examined the livelihood, issues and concerns of the people engaged in manual scavenging in her area of study.

For her block fieldwork placements in the four semesters, Ms. Kumari was placed with different organizations that are working on varied issues. In the first semester, she was placed with Mazdoor Kisan Shakti Sangathan, Rajasthan. During this while, she worked on issues related to public distribution system. In the second semester fieldwork, she worked with Pratham Education Foundation, Bihar. While being there, she learnt about use of technology in education. In the third semester, she went to North Eastern Development Finance Corporation Ltd (NEDFi) under CSR Division, Guwahati where she worked on product designing of fibres for handloom weavers. In the fourth semester, she completed her fieldwork with Oxford Policy Management, Patna where she worked on health issues. She engaged with each of her field organisations and settings with commendable interest and initiative.

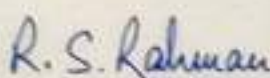

In the first year, she participated in the rural practicum and worked with Mahila Shakti Kendra, Balipara, Assam. This provided her with an opportunity to experience rural living and understand rural realities.

In addition to academics, her participation in the extracurricular life at the institute has been notable.

Ms. Kumari is a dedicated worker and passionate about social causes. She is a diligent and conscientious student and always strives hard to do her best. Her enthusiasm and sincerity will be an asset to any organisation she works with.

We wish her all the very best in her future career.

A statement of grades, obtained by Ms. Kumari, is annexed.
