

Name: Komal Mina

Education:

Master's in History (Specialization: Modern History)

University of Rajasthan, K.D. College 2024

Bachelor's in Arts (History, English Literature, Geography)

S.S. Jain Subodh Girls College, University of Rajasthan – 2022

12th in Humanities

Senior Secondary School, Mundia Tonk, Rajasthan

Research Topic:

“The Role of Regional Language Press in Empowering Subaltern Voices”

This research examines the critical role regional language newspapers played in representing marginalized communities during India's modern history. It explores how these publications served as platforms for amplifying subaltern voices, fostering social awareness, and contributing to political mobilization.

Research Interests:

- Modern history

Media and its influence on social change

Subaltern studies

Experience:

One-month online Content Writing Internship at Earth 5R (Sustainable Development)

Skills:

Research and academic writing

Critical analysis and interpretation of historical sources

Communication and content creation

Interests:

- Writing, research, and exploring underrepresented historical narratives